

Midwest Student Exchange Program

An easy way to save money on out-of-state tuition costs

A program of the Midwestern Higher Education Compact

What is it?

The Midwest Student Exchange Program (MSEP) is a tuition reduction program that makes attending out-of-state colleges and universities more affordable for non-resident students. By enrolling in a MSEP program at a participating institution, you will receive a reduced tuition rate—giving you a wider range of education options for your education dollars. Nearly one hundred colleges and universities in Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, and Wisconsin have opened their doors to each others' citizens by offering reduced tuition rates.

How does it work?

The MSEP is not a scholarship. Through the MSEP, public institutions agree to charge students no more than 150% of the in-state resident tuition rate for specific programs; private institutions offer a 10% reduction on their tuition rates. You must enroll as a non-resident student at a participating MSEP campus to receive the discount. It's almost like getting free money.

"MSEP has made it possible for me to attend a university that caters to my major of choice. The state I'm from does not offer the major I'm pursuing. (Without MSEP) I would not be able to afford college."

*Amanda,
Nebraska resident attending
Wichita State University*
