ADMISSION CRITERIA MADE MORE FLEXIBLE

Admission to the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is competitive. Admission decisions are based on a comprehensive review of both academic and nonacademic factors.

Academic factors: Class rank percentile, ACT or SAT, high school grades, rigor of high school courses, trend in grades in academic courses over time.

Nonacademic factors: Demonstrated leadership; involvement through work experience, extracurricular activities, and volunteering; personal characteristics and accomplishments including special talents and abilities, honors, awards and personal qualities; diversity in background and experience; and life circumstances.

No UWSP app fee: There is no application fee to apply to any of the three UW-Stevens Point campuses. Students can apply starting August 1 at no cost with either the UW System application or the Common Application (Stevens Point campus only).

UW-Stevens Point is continuing to accept self-report/unofficial high school transcripts for admission as an alternative. In addition, UW-Stevens Point campuses are test-optional; scores are not required for admissions purposes. ACT or SAT scores may be required for some scholarships. Visit our website for more details.

NEWS AND UPDATES AT UW-STEVENS POINT

• In January 2021, UW-Stevens Point welcomed Chancellor Thomas Gibson and his wife and daughter. Chancellor Gibson is excited to meet our students in person and guide our university with his three strategic imperatives: academic excellence, inclusive excellence, and enrollment and growth.

• New programs offered at UW-Stevens Point include a doctorate in physical therapy and a new science education bachelor’s degree, one of the first in the University of Wisconsin System.

• A new critical thinking general education requirement will be offered to enhance student’s problem-solving skills - a skill set that has been acknowledged by employers as an in-demand skill needed in today’s workforce.

• The new Welcome Center on the Stevens Point campus is open. We are excited about the student-centered facility and thrilled to host your students for a visit. Tours/visits for Marshfield and Wausau can be scheduled through their Solution Centers: 715-389-6530 (Marshfield) and 715-261-6235 (Wausau).

• UW-Stevens Point will have no application fee for incoming first-year and transfer students. Students will be able to apply at no cost to each of our three campuses. They can also easily transfer internally within our three campuses, as well as transfer to other UW schools in the UW system.

• High school students can take college courses on campus, hybrid or online, with the high school district pre-approving the courses. Courses can be taken for both high school and college credit at each of the three campuses. The primary contact is Angela Schmidt at aschmidt@uwsp.edu.

• The city of Stevens Point was recognized by Wallet Hub’s Best College Towns and Cities in America ranking fifth out of 415 cities across the nations.

• U.S. News & World Report ranks UW-Stevens Point in the Top 15 public regional universities in the Midwest.

• UWSP launched the Leadership, Empowerment and Discovery (LEAD) summer bridge program which invited nearly 100 diverse future Pointers to campus early to engage in workshops related to student success and critical thinking skills.
